

THE DIXIE DIGGERS

WARRIOR BASIN TREASURE HUNTERS ASSOCIATION (WBTHA)

The first meeting in June of the WBTHA was held on June 5th at Niki's West Restaurant. Vice-President Mike Wardlow brought the meeting to order at 7:32 pm with 7 members present. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Secretary Bonnie Watson and the minutes were approved as read.

OLD BUSINESS

*Mike Wardlow reported to the members present that Mr. Charles "Charlie" Britt passed away on June 1, 2007 and that the Club had sent flowers. Mr. Britt's son called to say that Mr. Britt had already sent his Hunt payment and for the Club to keep it. Mike Wardlow suggested to keep the #1 space opened for Mr. Britt.

*Treasurer David Scales reported we have $3,817.72 in the bank. Only one check had been written and it was to Secretary Bonnie Watson for $78.00 for postage and copies.

NEW BUSINESS

*Mike Wardlow reported the next coin show is the third weekend in July. It was mentioned there would not be a meeting the first week in July due to Niki's West Restaurant closing that week. Mike also made note that everyone should have their entry fees in by the end of July.

*Bill Glass talked to Buddy Nabors who had been in the hospital. Buddy wanted to know if he could get a discount rate for hunting in just a couple of hunts. Mike Wardlow said for Buddy to contact President Joe Box or Mike Wardlow to get the rate, and there should not be a problem.

*Perry Watson gave a one ounce silver round to cover bags he received.

THE GAMES
